

- Noncontiguous Storage: allows files to use any storage space available on the disk.

File 1 starts in address 2 & continues in 8, 18.

Linking takes place at the storage level.

Linking takes place at the directory level.

- Indexed Storage: allows direct record access by bringing together into an index block the pointers linking every content of that file.

