

Given two decision problems A & B ,

A is polynomially reducible to B ($A \leq_p B$) if there exists a function f which maps inputs to A to the inputs for B , such that,

- ① f can be computed in polynomial time
- ② the answer to a given input I to A is yes if and only if the answer to the input $f(I)$ to B is yes.