

An Example Using Web Services

---

- HTTP - Hypertext Transport Protocol; an ASCII-based protocol designed for serving pages of text and simple graphics to clients.
- Web Server - a software entity that listens to a port on a system (typically port 80) and waits for a request that matches the HTTP protocol to respond to.
- Web Client - a software entity that elicits information from the user and makes requests to web servers using the HTTP format.

Example